

About the Goulburn Mental Health Hub (GMHH)

The GMHH is a free and confidential service that offers a mix of clinical and non-clinical mental health support in the Goulburn Mulwaree LGA. It offers support for people with moderate mental health needs and will assist with service navigation for those requiring accessing to other more appropriate services.

The GMHH has a team that includes psychologists, mental health accredited social workers, counsellors, and peer workers who can support consumers face to face, online or by phone. All support for anyone under the age of 16 years is currently only offered online or by phone.

How can people refer to the GMHH?

The GMHH can accept self-referrals, referrals from family, friends, carers, GP's, or other health professionals. Referrals can be made via:

- Walk-ins to the office at 23 Clifford Street, Goulburn. Walk-ins can be supported during our office hours of Monday-Friday 9am to 5pm.
- Sending an email to goulburn.mentalhealthhub@familyservices.org.au
- Contacting the hub at 1800 372 000 (Option 2)
- Contacting the national Head to Health phonenumber on 1800 595 212 to complete an intake.

Please Note

The GMHH is not an acute mental health or crisis service. If there is a significant risk to yourself or someone that you care about, please contact 000 or visit your nearest hospital.
